Tercero Domingo de Cuaresma
(Éxodo 20:1-17; 1 Corintios 1:22-25; Juan 1:13-25)

“LA LEY DEL SEÑOR ES PERFECTA . . .”

Para los judíos piadosos de la Palestina del siglo I, la Ley mosaica prescribía la forma en que cada acción de la vida se dedicaba a Dios. La lectura del libro del Éxodo nos dice cómo los Diez Mandamientos, la introducción a esta Ley amplia, se le da a Israel como un regalo por parte de Dios.

En los evangelios, Jesús es representado como un rabino, o alguien que estudió la Ley. El conocimiento de un rabino idealmente incluía tanto los preceptos de la Ley como su contemplación reverente como regalo de Dios, dentro de la cual uno podía escuchar la propia voz de Dios. Esta era la forma en que los rabinos a través de los siglos utilizaron la Ley para adaptarse a las circunstancias cambiantes. Esto parece ser lo que Jesús estaba haciendo con los cambistas en el Templo.

JESÚS, LA LEY, LOS JUDÍOS Y NOSOTROS

Cuando Jesús acusó a los cambistas de profanación y los sacó del Templo, los mirones preguntaron con qué autoridad hacía tal cosa. Después de todo, ¿qué no era un sacrilegio comprar animales para los sacrificios y pagar con monedas paganas? ¿No fue así como los judíos adoptaron el mandato romano? Jesús no dice nada acerca de eso, él sólo sabe que ese tipo de comercio dentro del Templo era un sacrilegio. En otras partes del Evangelio a Jesús se le critica por que no es lo suficiente estricto con la Ley, así como cuando come con prostitutas y recaudadores de impuestos, pero aquí está indicando algo “más”.

Jesús está haciendo algo extraordinario, contrario a la práctica ordinaria, provocando a los mirones que pidan una señal, una evidencia de que Dios está obrando por medio de Jesús. Su insistencia para que los cambistas se vayan, su visión clara sobre “la casa de mi Padre” y su referencia enigmática a él mismo como un templo, son signos de su intimidad contemplativa con su Padre que es el origen de su autoridad sobre la Ley.

Los católicos, como los judíos del primer siglo, tienen nuestros medios habituales para vivir en la presencia de Dios. Nosotros tenemos la liturgia, los sacramentos, las devociones y la oración personal. Durante la Cuaresma, se nos pide que seamos un poco más estrictos con nosotros mismos, escuchando la propia voz de Dios. Si lo hacemos, podríamos descubrir que nosotros también estamos llamados a algo “más”.

Third Sunday of Lent

(Exodus 20:1-17; 1 Corinthians 1:22-25; John 1:13-25)

“THE LAW OF THE LORD IS PERFECT . . .”

For pious Jews in first-century Palestine, the Mosaic Law prescribed the way every action in life is dedicated to God. Today’s reading from Exodus tells how the Ten Commandments, the introduction to this larger legal code, is given to Israel as a gift from God.

In the Gospels Jesus is portrayed as a rabbi, or someone learned in the Law. A rabbi’s learning ideally included both the precepts of the Law and its reverent contemplation as a divine gift, within which one could hear God’s own voice. This was the way rabbis through the centuries used the Law to adapt to changing circumstances. This seems to be what Jesus was doing with the moneychangers in the temple.

JESUS, THE LAW, THE JEWS—AND US

When Jesus accused the moneychangers of sacrilege and cleared them out of the temple, the onlookers asked for a sign of his authority to do such a thing. After all, wasn’t it a sacrilege to purchase animals for sacrifice with pagan coins? Wasn’t this how the Jews adapted to Roman rule? Jesus says nothing about that; he only knows that this commercial activity inside the temple was a sacrilege. Elsewhere in the Gospels Jesus is criticized for not being strict enough with the Law, as when he ate with prostitutes and tax collectors, but here he is prescribing something stricter, something “more.”

Jesus is doing something extraordinary, contrary to ordinary practice, prompting the onlookers to request a sign, evidence that God is acting here through Jesus. His insistence that the moneychangers depart, his clear vision regarding “my Father’s house,” and his cryptic reference to himself as a temple, are signs of his contemplative intimacy with his Father that is the source of his authority about the Law.

Catholics, like first-century Jews, have our regular means for living in God’s presence. We have the liturgy, sacraments, devotions, and personal prayer. During Lent, we are asked to be a little stricter with ourselves, listening for God’s own voice. If we do, we might discover that we, too, are being called to something “more.”

JESUS SAVIOR: He Is the True Temple

The cleansing of the temple is a prophetic action that serves as a sign of the coming of the messianic times. In the Bible, the temple is a sign of God's saving presence among his people. Therefore, when the John depicts Jesus as vigorously driving out the merchants from the temple area, spilling the coins of the money changers and overturning their tables, and denouncing the dove vendors for making his Father's house a marketplace, he is communicating the reality that the era of the "new temple" has come. The leaders of the Jerusalem temple, however, miss the symbolic value of Jesus' action-sign.

In response to the defiant remark of the Jewish authorities, "What sign can you show us for doing this?" Jesus made a startling statement: "Destroy this temple and in three days I will raise it up." The evangelist John clarifies: the new temple is Christ's resurrected body. Jesus speaks about "the temple of his body," and when he is raised from the dead, his disciples would remember that he said this. They would believe the Scripture and the word Jesus had spoken. Indeed, the major "sign" that justifies Jesus' actions and gives him authority is his resurrection. It is the ultimate sign that reveals he is truly the Son of God.

In this Lenten season, let us appreciate more deeply that we are "living stones". Let us allow the grace of God to incorporate us more intimately into Christ and the Church-temple.

Question of the Week: Do you believe that Christ abides with us and continues to live on in the Church? How do you show respect and reverence to the "living stones" that comprise the new temple of God?

Stewardship of Treasure

Please remember Saint Eugene in your Last Will and Testament

"You shall not carve idols for yourselves in the shape of anything..." - Exodus 20:4

How many "gods" do you put before God? "Idols" do not always take the shape of physical things, things we can touch and feel. Those are easy to recognize. Many times they take the form of things we cannot touch and are much harder to spot like pride, power, ego, time, comfort or health. Pray for God's help to prune our vices and to grow in virtue.

Weekly Collection Goal = $11,500

Last Week Actual = $11,680

Fiscal YTD Average = $10,707

"No te harás ídolos de cualquier forma" - Éxodo 20:4

¿Cuántos "dioses" anteponeamos a Dios? Los ídolos no siempre toman la forma de cosas físicas, cosas que podemos tocar y sentir. Esos son fáciles de reconocer. Muchas veces toman la forma de cosas que no podemos tocar y son mucho más difíciles de detectar como el orgullo, el poder, el ego, el tiempo, la comodidad o la salud. Rece pidiendo la ayuda de Dios para eliminar nuestros vicios y crecer en virtud.

We continue to salute all the healthcare personnel, all other front-line workers and the countless volunteers who have given their time and resources to stop the spread of COVID-19 and to assist the victims.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love you above all things
and I desire to receive you in my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive you sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you.
AMEN

Oración para la Comunión Espiritual

Jesús mío, que estás real y verdaderamente en el Cielo
y en el Santísimo Sacramento del altar.
Te amo sobre todas las cosas y deseo vivamente recibirte dentro de mi alma,
pero no pudiendo
hacerlo ahora sacramentalmente,
ven al menos espiritualmente a mi corazón.
Y como si ya te hubiese recibido,
Te abrazo y me uno del todo a Ti.

*Señor, no permitas que jamás me aparte de
Ti. AMEN*

Is the office open?

Although the office building remains closed to everyone except St. Eugene staff, we are tending to most business as usual. You are asked to conduct all of your business with the office either by phone or by email at this time. Limiting the amount of people through the office makes our work area safer and allows us to continue to serve the STE Parishioners.
